Who is Hometown Hero?

Hometown Hero is a maker and purveyor of high-quality goods based in Austin, Texas. We aim to enrich people's lives by helping them feel grounded in the moment and let daily worries melt away. Our products begin in the sandy loam of the Texas Wine Country, as federally legal hemp is grown without chemical pesticides and fertilizers. Through rigorous testing and high manufacturing standards, we are constantly breaking barriers for what "top-shelf" cannabis can truly be with recognition from Forbes to the New York Times.

Why Promote Hometown Hero?

At Hometown Hero, we make our products with great pride and dedication to safety. Our products start from responsibly sourced American-grown hemp, and each batch undergoes full-panel testing. Even though full-panel testing is not required, it is the right thing to do because we believe consumers have the right to know that a third-party lab tested their products for potency and contaminants with test results they can access.

Plus, we're not just a cannabis brand but a force for cannabis advocacy and helping U.S. veterans in need. Throughout the years, we've worked as a lobbying force fighting against cannabis prohibition in the Lone Star State, other states, and on a federal level. And we've won plenty of those fights, too.

Since our founding, we've donated to nonprofit organizations that help U.S. veterans, true hometown heroes, in need. These organizations include the Texas Veterans of Foreign Wars, Chive Charities, Disabled American Veterans, Soldiers' Angels, and more. By promoting Hometown Hero, you can help our cause of protecting cannabis and supporting those who served.
