What if I live outside the United States?

The WW.com Affiliate Program is only accepting U.S.-based affiliates at this time.

What is Impact?

WW.com has teamed with Impact, a leader in third-party affiliate marketing programs, to provide affiliates with trusted third-party tracking, real-time reporting and monthly commission checks to handle our affiliate accounts. Once you sign up for and are accepted to our program, you'll be taken to Impact's site where you'll create your own personal and secure account. Here you can log in at any time to get our banners and links, find out about commissions earned and even learn about how many impressions each of your links has received.

For marketing tips and additional affiliate program education, visit Impact.

What if I have more than one website?

We recommend adding our links to all of your approved websites. In fact, we encourage it! Tracking will still take place through Impact. All of your approved sites will be listed under your one account.

May I use the WW.com logo or content on my site?

You will have access to a wide variety of banners and text links after you are accepted into our affiliate program.

You are welcome to use any of the graphics and text links provided. You may not alter or modify any banners or links in any way. You must also secure permission before using any third-party's copyrighted materials. If you are unsure about your rights to use or modify the materials for your website, please review the Affiliate Terms & Conditions in our Impact Program Terms or contact us.

What will I earn?

You will earn a base commission of $10 for every qualifying subscription.

Can I change and update links whenever I want?

Yes. You may change and update the links on your site at any time, based on seasonal changes, the type of site you have, to keep the creative fresh or for whatever other reasons you wish. You'll find a variety of logos, banners, and links on Impact.com where you can choose the one that's right for your site.

When do I get paid?
