How it works

Help the world learn tech. Get paid.

- Apply to be an affiliate
Our third-party partner, CJ, handles your application, then we vet each one manually and accept partners who will be a good fit.
- Promote Pluralsight content
Share trackable ads and links on your podcasts and social media, in emails and blogs, at events or lectures—even during your game night. You'll know when the moment's right.
- Earn a commission
If anyone signs up for a free trial, a monthly subscription, or an annual subscription, you get paid. You read that right the first time; it's that simple.

Simple commissions

We make our commission structure simple, so you can focus on your own business.

Individual subscriptions

- Get $1 for every person that signs up for a free trial of Pluralsight
- Get 30% of the purchase price of the first month of a monthly Pluralsight subscription
- Get 10% of the purchase price of the first year of a yearly Pluralsight subscription
- 7-day attribution window to earn after your audience clicks

Team subscriptions

- Get 5% of the purchase price of the first quarter of a quarterly Pluralsight subscription (5 seats max)
- Get 5% of the purchase price of the first year of a yearly Pluralsight subscription (5 seats max)
- 7-day attribution window to earn after your audience clicks

“The best part of the Pluralsight affiliate program is that I am making affiliate money from promoting a product and company I truly believe in, and I can make extra money from my blog and social media.”
