Why join?

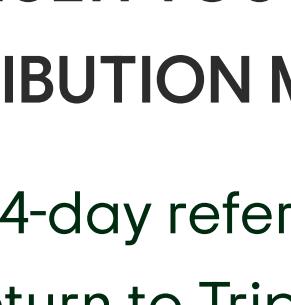

MINIMUM 50% COMMISSION

Link to specific hotels on Tripadvisor. Earn at least 50% of the commission we receive from our hotel booking partners when users come to Tripadvisor via your trackable affiliate link, and then click out to our partners.

NO HOTEL BOOKING REQUIRED

Your users may still be in the research and planning stages – so there's no need to push for a sale. You still get paid when users click out to our hotel booking partners, regardless of whether or not they book.

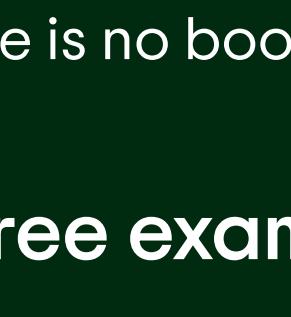

MULTI-TOUCH ATTRIBUTION MODEL

We offer a 14-day referral window. If your users return to Tripadvisor within those 14 days and click out to our partners, you'll get credit and earn commissions – even if they come back on a different device or via other channels (e.g. banners and ads).

How do I earn commissions?

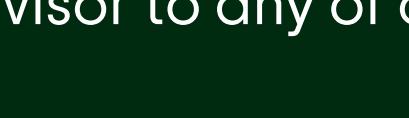

When a user comes to Tripadvisor via an affiliate link on your site and subsequently clicks any of the hotel booking links on Tripadvisor, they are sent on to our booking partners and you've secured your commission.
